Re: James Fischer v. Dean Eric Stiglitz
Case No.: 15 CV 6266
Claim No.: 20-X-2XH302
Our File No.: 15-120 DMP (17)

Dear Judge Nathan:

We are counsel for the Defendants in the above matter.

On December 17, 2015, we received Plaintiff's 18 page letter that he allegedly forgot to serve in opposition to the pending motion by Defendant, Dean Stiglitz ("Stiglitz") to dismiss the amended complaint. Also received was a three page proposed sur-reply to the motion.

On page 6 of 18 of this submission, Plaintiff states:

Regardless, Plaintiff's unilateral and unconditional withdrawal of the defamation claim is not open for debate.

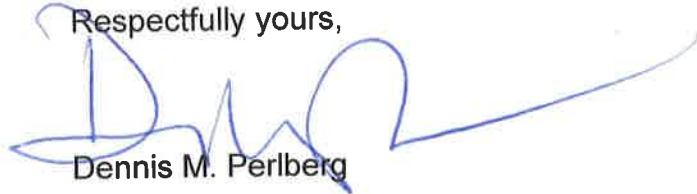

Based upon this concession, Defendants request that the Third Cause of Action for defamation in the Amended Complaint be dismissed with prejudice on consent.

As to the other statements and arguments made in the two submissions, we request that they be rejected by the Court, or in the alternative, that Stiglitz be afforded an opportunity to respond. As I will be on vacation next week, if a response is allowed, it is requested that our papers be permitted to be filed on or before January 9, 2016.
